

Waste Disposal Handbook

Table of Contents

How to sort and dispose trash and recyclables (Placing out garbage, garbage bags)	1
To those who have moved into or moved within Nagaizumi Town	1
How to drop off (individual carry-in) garbage and recyclables.	1
Subsidy program for kitchen garbage disposal equipment	2
Recycling cooking oil	2
Home-generated medical waste	2
Combustible garbage	3
Pruned branches (Wood scrapping)	4
Plastic garbage (plastic containers and packaging)	5
Plastic garbage (others)	6
Non-combustible garbage (small-sized electronic home appliances, shreddable waste, landfill waste)	7
PET bottles, hazardous waste (Fluorescent tubes, batteries, disposable cigarette lighters)	8
Recyclables (metals, glass bottles)	9
Recyclables (waste paper, fabrics)	10
Recycling "miscellaneous paper"	11
Recycling personal computers and cell phones	12
Recycling electric home appliances (types of devices, how to dispose), Recycling motorcycles	13
Main items the town does not collect (items that may not be disposed)	14
Trash sorting categories and disposal tips (in Japanese alphabetical order by name of item)	15-24
"Miscellaneous paper" (list of items in Japanese alphabetical order)	25-26

Collection Dates

Collection dates vary by area.

Please refer to the Household Garbage Collection Calendar that is distributed separately.

The Household Garbage Collection Calendar is available in five foreign languages (Chinese, Spanish, Portuguese, Korean, and English).

Waste collection services are provided on national holidays.

Nagaizumi Town

March 2014

<<Contact>>

Incineration Plant (Sanitation Office)

TEL: 986-8393 FAX: 988-8432
E-mail: seisou@nagaizumi.org

* See p.15-24 for a list of items in Japanese alphabetical order.

* See p.25-26 for a list of "miscellaneous paper" items in Japanese alphabetical order.